Newsletter 16th February 2018

Welcome to our February Club Night.
Please see John if you wish to play for us tonight, we do appreciate your entertaining us.

Accordion Extravaganza 16th MARCH.

Virtuoso Accordionist

Andrei Oloieri

Andrei's first instrument is the Accordion however after mastering the craft at an early age his curiosity and drive led Andrei to study both Violin and Piano too. After graduating from Music College where he studied all 3 instruments plus composition Andrei embarked on a career which would take him all over the world playing in many different groups and genres on all 3 instruments. Alongside this colourful career he has always been composing and worked as a Musical Arranger and Musical Director. This year see's Andrei uniting his talents recording his latest compositions 'Songs without Words' it features himself on Piano, Violin and Accordion and he has orchestrated and directed each piece for a full size Orchestra.

We hope you will all be able to come along and enjoy listening to this fabulous artist

Tillingbourne Accordion Orchestra

They are an orchestra in demand. Come and hear them perform alongside Andrei Oloieri on 16th March 2018. They are then playing at the Ealing Music Festival on the afternoon of Saturday 17th March.

You would be most welcome to come along and listen. In the evening they play again at a St Patrick's Day extravaganza in Wimbledon.

The orchestra is going from strength to strength and now has in excess of 20 members. A sparkling selection of lively music will banish the winter blues - from film score to modern tango. Come along to the club and you will be guaranteed a warm welcome.

The Ealing Festival

Ealing Festival would still like some support from you. Refreshments will be available, tea coffee and cake but bring your own lunch. There is a small car park and plenty of on street parking that is not metered in that area.

The venue is St. Andrew's United Reformed Church
Mount Park Road Ealing, London W5 2RS
