

Guildford Accordion Club

Proudly Presents

Jean Dauvin and Steve Roxton

Friday April 19th 2019

Our April Guests are two very talented accordionists with many years experience of entertaining people.

Jean Dauvin is an accordionist, keyboard, bassist, painter, music teacher, decorator, conductor, composer.

He has been a Judoka (black belt) since 1979 and since 1995 deputy mayor of Avranches France for tourism and communication.

In 1963 he won the World Championship in Dinant Belgium in semi- professional category (Trophy and Ribbon of the European Union of accordion teachers also world champion in duet with Liliane Leroy) In 1964 he was also European professional champion (cut and ribbon)

Steve Roxton International Accordionist Vocalist, covers music from around the world, with vocals in eight languages.

He has performed in numerous countries world-wide including Australia, Sweden, Bermuda, America, France, Spain, Portugal, Austria and of course throughout the United Kingdom. Quite apart from entertaining the general public he also appears at Accordion Festivals, and as guest artiste at accordion clubs and societies, with a programme of accordion solos.

To generate more interest in the accordion in the Channel Isles he founded The "Jersey Accordion Band" and "Les Amis de l'Accordeon de Jersey" a social club to promote accordion music and better playing which still meets at The Priory Hotel, St Mary Jersey Channel Isles on the first Tuesday of every month and is open to visitors.

Now resident in the North East of England, he performs at major events both here and in France.
