

Guildford Accordion Club

Newsletter 21st February 2020

Accordion Composers Competition

Welcome to the club this evening.
We start our evening with the usual play-along that I know we all enjoy.
We then look forward to hearing your entries for our competition.
Ivan is going to judge the entries.
I wish everyone the best of luck.

Thames Area NAO Accordion Festival

Ealing Festival is being held on Saturday 29th February 2020. Starting at 10am. It is free entry. This is an exciting day with many different styles of playing. It is also great to meet up with fellow players that we have met and admired before. You can come along and enjoy a wide variety of accordion entertainment. They would appreciate your support.
Everyone has been working hard to make the day a success.
Our local Tillingbourne Accordion Orchestra and The Crawley Accordion Orchestra have been busy practicing their pieces as have many of the other entrants.
Refreshments will be available to purchase with some delicious homemade cakes available for a donation.
There will also be a raffle that will be drawn in the afternoon.
The venue: St Andrew's United Reform Church, Mount Park Road, Ealing, London, W5 2RS.
For more info contact: Alison Worthington
email: thamesareafestival@gmail.com
There is plenty of free on street parking near the venue.

The Roman Viazzani Ensemble

They launch the crowdfunded album London Tango at The Pheasantry in London on 15th March 2020 in a special lunchtime concert. They have also released Libertango as a single on Spotify iTunes and other platforms for you to download ahead of the album launch.
Superb performances by world class musicians and singers from worlds of Jazz, Classical, Latin American and the West End Theatre.
All the fire and passion of Argentine Tango but with an infusion of London added to the mix.
Eight new compositions and some classic Argentine, European Tangos too with a good dose of Astor Piazzolla make this an irresistible album for any collector.

Accordion Masterclass

You may be interested in this free event.
A performance with Mario Stefano Pietrodarchi, professor of accordion at the Conservatorio Torrefranca, Vibo Valentia, Italy who is both an outstanding classical accordionist and professor but equally brilliant on bandoneon and the tango repertoire. Don't miss this expressive and compulsive musician's master class where he will work with the students of the accordion department.
24th February 2020 2.30pm-5.30pm
Angela Burgess Recital Hall
Royal Academy of Music
Marylebone Road,
London, NW1 5HT
Telephone: 020 7873 7373

Next Club Night 20th March 2020

Look forward to seeing you all then