No, I'm not on about our composer's competition.

Some of you may have watched the TV program on Sunday and seen two blind contestants. Denise Leigh was singing accompanied by her husband Stefan Andrusyschyn playing the piano.

Many of our members enjoyed their singing and music when they visited the club approximately 8 years ago.

Since their appearance on the talent show they have been featured on some TV chat shows.

Stefan also plays the accordion. He also took part in in our area Festivals years ago when they were held at Notre Dame School.

We would like to wish them every success with their future performances.
