We are delighted that the Super Orchestra Day is returning, after a long break.
The event will take place here in Cobham Village Hall. Julie Luck, will be in charge of the day.
Julie is a very well respected conductor, teacher, and a great promoter for the Accordion .
This is a wonderful opportunity to join and meet other players , and share in the love for the Accordion and also the music.
There may be some entry forms here this evening.
Anyone who may be interested please let Myra know, and we will forward your request.
There will also be a concert in the evening featuring the groups who have taken part.
Also the mass Orchestra will perform the pieces they were working on during the day.
A great way to introduce your family and friends to the accordion.
The entry fee for the day is £20
